ARTICLE 2—INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND RESERVATION OF OWNERSHIP

Products are licensed, not sold. Beanbag owns Products and all copies, which are protected by United States and applicable international laws, treaties, and conventions regarding intellectual property and proprietary rights, including trade secrets. Licensee agrees to use reasonable means to protect Products from unauthorized use, reproduction, distribution, or publication. Beanbag reserves all rights not specifically granted in this License Agreement, including the right to change and improve Products.

4.1 Permitted Uses

For Products delivered to Licensee, Licensee may:
1. Install and store Products on electronic storage device(s);

3. Install and use a newer version of Software concurrently with the version to be replaced during a reasonable transition period not to exceed six (6) months, provided that the deployment of either version does not exceed Licensee's licensed quantity; thereafter, Licensee shall not use more Software in the aggregate than Licensee's total licensed quantity;
4. Move the Software in the licensed configuration to a replacement computer; and
5. Distribute to third parties Software and any associated Authorization Codes required for use of a Deployment License.

i. Unbundle or independently use individual or component parts of Software; or
j. Incorporate any portion of the Product into a product or service that competes with any Beanbag Product.

ARTICLE 5—TERM AND TERMINATION

This License Agreement is effective upon acceptance. Licensee may terminate this License Agreement or any Product license at any time upon written notice to Beanbag. Either party may terminate this License Agreement or any license for a material breach that is not cured within ten (10) days of written notice to the breaching party, except that termination is immediate for a material breach that is impossible to cure. Upon termination of the License Agreement, all licenses granted hereunder terminate as well. Upon termination of a license or the License Agreement, Licensee will (i) stop accessing and using affected Product(s); and (ii) uninstall, remove, and destroy all copies of affected Product(s) in Licensee's possession or control, including any modified or merged portions thereof, in any form, and execute and deliver evidence of such actions to Beanbag.

ARTICLE 6—LIMITED WARRANTIES AND DISCLAIMERS

6.1 Limited Warranties.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article 6, Beanbag warrants for a period of ninety (90) days from the date Beanbag issues the Authorization Code enabling use of Software that the unmodified Software will be free from defects in materials and workmanship.

6.2 Special Disclaimer.

Important: Hot fixes, patches, and updates provided on a no-fee basis are delivered "as is" without warranty of any kind.

6.3 Internet Disclaimer.

Important: The parties expressly acknowledge and agree that the internet is a network of private and public networks and that (i) the internet is not a secure infrastructure, (ii) the parties have no control over the internet, and (iii) none of the parties shall be liable for damages under any theory of law related to the performance or discontinuance of operation of any portion of the internet or possible regulation of the internet that might prohibit the operation of Products.

6.4 General Disclaimer.

Important: Except for the above express limited warranties, Beanbag disclaims all other warranties or conditions of any kind, whether express or implied, including, but not limited to, warranties or conditions of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, system integration, and noninfringement of intellectual property right. Beanbag does not warrant that products will meet Licensee's needs; that Licensee's operation of the same will be uninterrupted, error free, fault-tolerant, or fail-safe; or that all nonconformities can or will be corrected.

6.5 Exclusive Remedy.

Licensee's exclusive remedy and Beanbag's entire liability for breach of the limited warranties set forth in this Article 6 shall be limited, at Beanbag's sole discretion, to (i) replacement of any defective media; (ii) repair, correction, or a workaround for Software; or (iii) return of the license fees paid by Licensee for Software, provided that Licensee uninstalls, removes, and destroys all copies of Software and executes and delivers evidence of such actions to Beanbag.

ARTICLE 7—LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

7.1 Disclaimer of Certain Types of Liability.

Important: Beanbag shall not be liable to Licensee for costs of procurement of substitute goods or services; lost profits, lost sales, or business expenditures; investments; business commitments; loss of any goodwill; or any indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages arising out of or related to this license agreement or use of products, however caused on any theory of liability, whether or not Beanbag has been advised of the possibility of such damage. These limitations shall apply notwithstanding any failure of essential purpose of any limited remedy.

7.2 General Limitation of Liability.

Important: Except as provided in Article 8—Infringement Indemnity, the total cumulative liability of Beanbag hereunder, from all causes of action of any kind, including, but not limited to, contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, breach of warranty, misrepresentation, or otherwise, shall not exceed the amounts paid by Licensee for the Products that give rise to the cause of action.

7.3 Applicability of Disclaimers and Limitations.

Licensee agrees that the limitations of liability and disclaimers set forth in this License Agreement will apply regardless of whether Licensee has accepted Products or any other product or service delivered by Beanbag. The parties agree that Beanbag has set its fees and entered into this License Agreement in reliance on the disclaimers and limitations set forth herein, that the same reflect an allocation of risk between the parties, and that the same form an essential basis of the bargain between the parties. Important: These limitations shall apply notwithstanding any failure of essential purpose of any limited remedy.

Important: The foregoing warranties, limitations, and exclusions may not be valid in some jurisdictions and apply only to the extent permitted by applicable law in Licensee's jurisdiction. Licensee may have additional rights under law that may not be waived or disclaimed. Beanbag does not seek to limit Licensee's warranty or remedies to any extent not permitted by law.

ARTICLE 8—INFRINGEMENT INDEMNITY

8.1 Beanbag shall defend, indemnify, and hold Licensee harmless from and against any loss, liability, cost, or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that Licensee incurs as a result of any claims, actions, or demands by a third party alleging that Licensee's licensed use of Software infringe a US patent, copyright, or trademark, provided:

    a. Licensee promptly notifies Beanbag in writing of the claim;

    b. Licensee provides documents describing the allegations of infringement;

    c. Beanbag has sole control of the defense of any action and negotiation related to the defense or settlement of any claim; and

    d. Licensee reasonably cooperates in the defense of the claim at Beanbag's request and expense.

8.2 If Software is found to infringe a U.S. patent, copyright, or trademark, Beanbag, at its own expense, may either (i) obtain rights for Licensee to continue using the Software or (ii) modify the allegedly infringing elements of Software while maintaining substantially similar functionality. If neither alternative is commercially reasonable, the license shall terminate, and Licensee shall uninstall and return to Beanbag any infringing item(s). Beanbag's entire liability shall then be to indemnify Licensee pursuant to Section 8.1 and refund the unused portion of the fees paid.

8.3 Beanbag shall have no obligation to defend Licensee or to pay any resultant costs, damages, or attorneys' fees for any claims or demands alleging direct or contributory infringement to the extent arising out of (i) the combination or integration of Software with a product, process, or system not supplied by Beanbag; (ii) material alteration of Software by anyone other than Beanbag or its subcontractors; or (iii) use of Software after modifications have been provided by Beanbag for avoiding infringement or use after a return is ordered by Beanbag under Section 8.2.

8.4 Important: The foregoing states the entire obligation of Beanbag with respect to infringement or allegation of infringement of intellectual property rights of any third party.

ARTICLE 9—GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Future Updates.

Use of Products licensed under this License Agreement is covered by the terms and conditions contained herein. New or updated Products may require additional or revised terms of use under the then-current Beanbag License Agreement. Beanbag will provide notice of new or revised terms to Licensee.

9.2 Export Control Regulations.

Licensee expressly acknowledges and agrees that Licensee shall not export, reexport, import, transfer, or release Products, in whole or in part, to (i) any US embargoed country; (ii) any person on the US Treasury Department's list of Specially Designated Nationals; (iii) any person or entity on the US Commerce Department's Denied Persons List, Entity List, or Unverified List; or (iv) any person or entity or into any country where such export, reexport, or import violates any US, local, or other applicable import/export control laws or regulations including, but not limited to, the terms of any import/export license or license exemption and any amendments and supplemental additions to those import/export laws as they may occur from time to time.

9.3 Taxes and Fees, Shipping Charges.

License fees quoted to Licensee are exclusive of any and all taxes or fees, including, but not limited to, sales tax, use tax, value-added tax (VAT), customs, duties, or tariffs, and shipping and handling charges.

9.4 No Implied Waivers.

The failure of either party to enforce any provision of this License Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of the provisions or of the right of such party thereafter to enforce that or any other provision.

9.5 Severability.

The parties agree that if any provision of this License Agreement is held to be unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be reformed only to the extent necessary to make the intent of the language enforceable.

9.6 Successor and Assigns.

Licensee shall not assign, sublicense, or transfer Licensee's rights or delegate Licensee's obligations under this License Agreement without Beanbag's prior written consent, and any attempt to do so without consent shall be void. This License Agreement shall be binding on the respective successors and assigns of the parties to this License Agreement. Notwithstanding, a government contractor under contract to the government to deliver Products may assign this License Agreement and Products acquired for delivery to its government customer upon written notice to Beanbag, provided the government customer assents to the terms of this License Agreement.

9.7 Survival of Terms.

The provisions of Articles 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of this License Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this License Agreement.

9.8 Equitable Relief.

Licensee agrees that any breach of this License Agreement by Licensee may cause irreparable damage and that, in the event of such breach, in addition to any and all remedies at law, Beanbag shall have the right to seek an injunction, specific performance, or other equitable relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the requirement of posting a bond or proving injury as a condition for relief.

9.9 US Government Licensee.

The Products are commercial items, developed at private expense, provided to Licensee under this License Agreement. If Licensee is a US government entity or US government contractor, Beanbag licenses Products to Licensee in accordance with this License Agreement under FAR Subparts 12.211/12.212 or DFARS Subpart 227.7202. The commercial license rights in this License Agreement strictly govern Licensee's use, reproduction, or disclosure of Products. Licensee may transfer Software to any licensed government procuring agency facility to which computer(s) on which Software is installed are transferred. If any court, arbitrator, or board holds that Licensee has greater rights to any portion of Products under applicable public procurement law, such rights shall extend only to the portions affected.

9.10 Governing Law, Arbitration

Licensees in the United States of America, Its Territories, and Outlying Areas. This License Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California without reference to conflict of laws principles, except that US federal law shall govern in matters of intellectual property. Except as provided in Section 9.8, any dispute arising out of or relating to this License Agreement or the breach thereof that cannot be settled through negotiation shall be finally settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction. If Licensee is a US government agency, this License Agreement is subject to the Contract Disputes Act of 1978, as amended (41 USC 601–613), in lieu of the arbitration provisions of this clause. This License Agreement shall not be governed by the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, the application of which is expressly excluded.

All Other Licensees. Except as provided in Section 9.8, any dispute arising out of or relating to this License Agreement or the breach thereof that cannot be settled through negotiation shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one (1) arbitrator appointed in accordance with said rules. The language of the arbitration shall be English. The place of the arbitration shall be in Santa Clara County. This License Agreement shall not be governed by the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, the application of which is expressly excluded. Either party shall, at the request of the other, make available documents or witnesses relevant to the major aspects of the dispute.

9.11 Maintenance.

Maintenance for qualifying Products consists of updates and other benefits, such as access to technical support, specified in Beanbag's applicable maintenance policy.

9.12 Feedback.

Beanbag may freely use any feedback, suggestions, or requests for Product improvements that Licensee provides to Beanbag.

9.13 Patents.

Licensee may not seek, and may not permit any other user to seek, a patent or similar right worldwide that is based on or incorporates any Beanbag technology or services. This express prohibition on patenting shall not apply to Licensee's software and technology except to the extent that Beanbag technology or services, or any portion thereof, are a part of any claim or preferred embodiment in a patent application or a similar application.

9.14 Entire Agreement.

This License Agreement, including its incorporated documents, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the parties as to the subject matter set forth herein and supersedes any previous license agreements, understandings, and arrangements between the parties relating to such subject matter. Additional or conflicting terms set forth in any purchase orders, invoices, or other standard form documents exchanged during the ordering process, other than product descriptions, quantities, pricing, and delivery instructions, are void and of no effect. Any modification(s) or amendment(s) to this License Agreement must be in writing and signed by each party.
